VISTA Technology Services Inc. Acquires CenterScope Technologies Inc.

VISTA Technology Services Inc. Builds Stronger Presence in Federal Health Market and Intelligence Community with its Acquisition of CenterScope Technology Inc.

McLean, VA October 1, 2015 – VISTA Technology Services, Inc., (VISTA) recently acquired CenterScope Technologies Inc. (CSTI), a small business with a strong presence in the Federal sector. CSTI offers solutions in Engineering & Acquisition, Knowledge Management and International Development which will broaden VISTA's capabilities. The acquisition also increases VISTA's customer base which will allow greater opportunities for the company in the Federal Health Market and Intelligence Community. "The acquisition will bring about benefits to customers on both domestic and international levels. The purchase of CSTI gives us a more competitive edge while allowing us to offer a greater range of services and contract vehicles," stated Rod Buck, President & CEO. The combination of VISTA and CSTI further strengthens our position in the Federal sector while allowing us to pass on savings from the economies of scale we experience".
